Portfolio Preparation in Art and Design

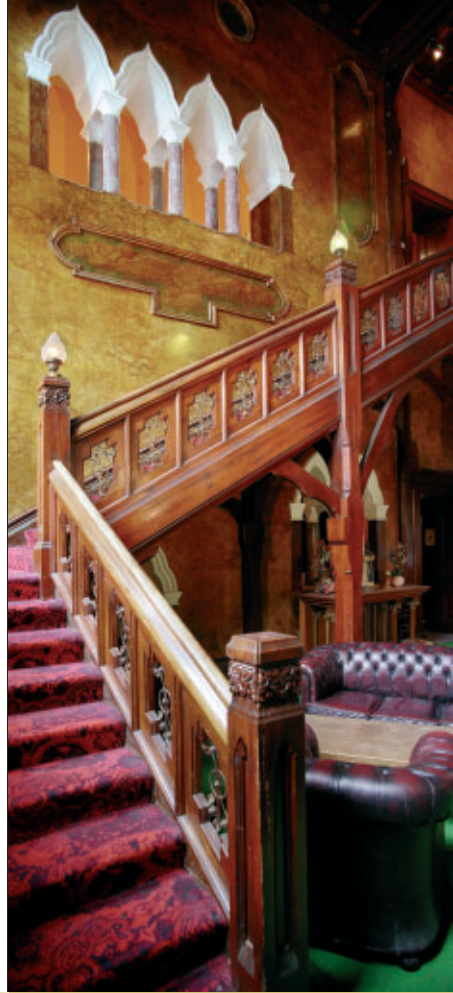

Portfolio Preparation in Art and Design

THE COURSE

The course is designed for students preparing portfolios for admission to third level. It is very suited to Third Level Fine Art, Graphic Design, and other Specialist Art courses. The course would also be beneficial to students hoping to pursue a career in Interactive Multi Media.

AIM

The aim of our course is twofold. The first aim is to provide a detailed portfolio. The second aim is to ensure that students have the knowledge and groundwork done which will enable them to cope with, and benefit fully from, their third level instruction.

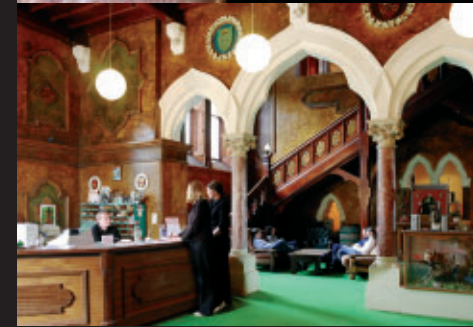

COURSE CONTENT

Practical:

- Drawing
- Painting
- 2D and 3D design
- Life drawing
- Print making
- Soft sculpture
- Mixed media
- Colour
- Creative project
- Performance
- Textile and fashion studies.

Academic:

- Art History
- Lectures from practising artists
- Information on college course content
- Course suitability
- Entry requirements
- Application procedures.

WHAT IS A PORTFOLIO?

It is a folder containing samples of your Art and Design work. It is vitally important as its quality is the decisive factor in the offer of a place on a course. A good portfolio can make up for less than brilliant academic qualifications. It should show evidence of commitment to the area for which you are applying.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applicants should take special care in completing the application form as selection for interview will be based on the information given.

Minimum Requirements:

- Leaving Certificate
- Leaving Certificate Applied
- Equivalent

Note: Mature students
Formal Academic Qualifications not required

Applicants are required to present a selection of work at interview.

The covering letter outlines details of fees and application deadlines.
